CONGRATULATIONS!

Ellen McCoy

Key Instrumental Employee for June 2009

Ms. Ellen McCoy, a custodian in the Psychology and Geology Building, has been selected as the Key Instrumental Employee of the Month for June because of her dedication to the University of New Orleans. The following is a summary of the nominations she received.

“Ellen always has a smile on her face and maintains a pleasant disposition to everyone she meets. She is instrumental in making the psychology department a pleasant place to work by both her efforts in housekeeping and her positive attitude and demeanor. She has a genuine concern for everyone and makes sure their needs are met. She is an invaluable asset to the psychology department and the UNO community.”
